A large, weathered stone monument, likely a grave marker, stands prominently against a backdrop of bare trees and a bright blue sky. The stone is covered in moss and lichen, showing significant signs of age and erosion. It is surrounded by other smaller, rectangular stone markers.

An aerial photograph of the Nagoya city skyline, showing a dense urban area with numerous buildings. In the background, several prominent skyscrapers are visible against a hazy sky. Superimposed on the image are three sets of text labels in blue. The top label reads "名古屋ビル群" and "Nagoya Buildings". The middle label reads "小牧山(小牧山城跡)" and "Mt. Komaki [Komakiyama Castle Ruins]". The bottom label reads "犬山城" and "Inuyama Castle".
